

Noonan Family Collection 1868-1998

Repository: Lawrence History Center

Accession Numbers: 2014.055 and 2016.022

Access: Open for research

Quantity: 4 record storage boxes in closed stacks and 7 record storage boxes full of textbooks in the warehouse

Processed by: Kathy Flynn, Amita Kiley, Louise Maloney, Mary Pannos and Rick Wetmore

Provenance: The material in this collection was donated by Candace Paine in 2014 and 2016. Paine was the caretaker of sisters Mary and Kathryn Noonan and when the Noonan sisters passed away they left their home at 243 Bruce St. in Lawrence to Paine. Lawrence-related items that were still in the house were donated to the Lawrence History Center in 2014 and 2016. The Noonan sisters were lifelong Lawrence residents and Lawrence teachers. When the sisters began their career, women were not allowed to be teachers if they were married, therefore the Noonan sisters remained single and lived together in Lawrence for their entire lives.
