

PLEASE JOIN US ON SATURDAY, APRIL 27, 2024
for a full day of learning and conversation about education in Lawrence!

Register TODAY!

The Lawrence History Center will host a one-day community symposium on The History and Evolution of Education in Lawrence on Saturday, April 27, 2024, 8:45 AM—4:30 PM, at YDO-Youth Development Organization, Everett Mill, Lawrence.

Please PRE-REGISTER for a full day of speakers, panel presentations, and other attractions!

Our morning Keynote Speaker:

Lorena Germán, Co-Founder and Academic Director at Multicultural Classroom
"Textured Teaching in These Times"

Lunchtime Conversation:

Reimagining and Reshaping the Landscape of Public School Education
Facilitated by: Nathan Baez, Elevated Thought, with Lawrence high school students

Presentations held throughout the day include:

- Panel: Anticipating Educational Needs in the Immigrant City Across a Century
 - Roman Catholic Parochial Schools: the case of Ste. Anne's of Lawrence and French-Canadian Cultural Survival
 - The Development of the Lawrence Vocational School
 - Early Years of NECC in Lawrence, 1985 - 2000
- Speaker: The Lawrence Plan for Education in Citizenship (1918)
- Panel: Our Future, Our Schools: The Fight for Democratic Control of the Lawrence Public Schools
- Lunchtime Conversation: Reimagining and Reshaping the Landscape of Public School Education
- Panel: Violence and School Desegregation in Lowell, MA in the 1980s
- Panel: Community Education at the Bread and Roses Festival, including "Weaving Justice in the Global Textile Industry: Labor Arts Education in Mill Cities"
- Panel: Carving a Path for Teacher Diversity in Lawrence: A Close Look at the UML-LPS Paraprofessional Pathway
- Speaker and Discussion: Transitioning from State Receivership: What does it take to regain local control?

For session schedule and descriptions, speaker bios, archival resources, directions, and
TO REGISTER, please visit: <http://lawrencehistory.org/education/symposium/2024>

Registration Fee: $35.00 per person; $20.00 for students (K-12, undergraduate)

Each registration includes a light breakfast and lunch. Snacks and beverages will be available throughout the day (at no additional charge).

The Lawrence History Center 2024 Community Symposium is made possible with funding from Lawrence Cultural Council, The White Fund, Andover Bread Loaf, and the Catherine McCarthy Memorial Trust Fund.

Questions? Please contact Susan Grabski at 978-686-9230 or director@lawrencehistory.org

